

How can we support you in business development in Greater Bay Area ?

ChinaStar launch SME support programmes that helps entrepreneurs enhance your business's competitiveness and achieve transformation goals in the areas of branding, e-commerce, manufacturing and supply chain solutions and new markets in Greater Bay Area (GBA). Our dedicated partners will work with you to identify your goals and provide support over a three-month period, with group and individualised services including advisory services, workshops, government-funding information, market knowledge and networking opportunities in GBA.

- Provide market insights and provide practical information in ding new markets in China
- Go digital and establish your brand in China
- To provide practical advice on brand planning, marketing strategies and intellectual property to help you to create a unique brand and establish a differentiated presence in China.
- To leverage Hong Kong government funding to develop your business in China

Connect with us : info@chinastar.com or What's app (00852) 53937928
or visit our website www.chinastarcpa.com